Approved For Release 2002/08/21: CIA-RDP91-00682R000200060027-8

| •   | Friday - 2 November I  | 1951   |
|---|--|--|
| ·   | STATINTI   | STATINTL   |
| 1. In accordance with 1   | his previous telephone   | call, Mr. Vetchery, Chief  |
| Investigator of the House Appthe Services Division regardito carry out a Committee invI talked to Mr. Harvey, Chieindicated that it would be preto the pressure of work and t | ropriations Committeeing utilizing   | e, talked with of services for a few months of America. On 1 November Committee on Appropriations, and ose services due we might find ourselves were a rtment of State activity. As a this morning that he |
| would drop the request.   | STATINTL   | STATINTL   |
| Service Committee, whether  | he felt that CIA was enBel e n pointed out that traise apply to those exc | e House Post Office and Civilntitled to pay its employees thethe Committee had not intendedempted from the Classification  |

Act of 1949 because many of these groups could set their own wage scales and might already have made adjustments for the cost-of-living rise. He indicated that each such Agency would have to stand on its own statute and that it appeared that CIA had ample statutory authority to grant the retroactive pay raise.